

FAQ PDF

Why should I book Tweed Scott for my event?

First of all, he is an entertainer. His broadcast background found him performing for all kinds of audiences. He is passionate about speaking about Texas. He calls it 'Spreading the Gospel of Texas.' But don't let that fool you. He uses Texas as a vehicle to get his inspiring, motivational message to the target audience. His talks are peppered with 'Tweedisms.' They're funny Texas-like sayings that carry a serious message. Audiences love him and what's more he is easy to work with. He quickly becomes part of your solution to a successful event.

What other groups or organizations has he spoken for?

Tweed's speaking career began during his 30 years in broadcasting. He's acted as Master of Ceremonies at Chamber of Commerce banquets, Grand Openings, MC'd music shows featuring entertainers George Strait, Alabama, and Garth Brooks to name a few. His community work includes speaking before clubs and civic organizations--Lion's, Sertoma, Rotary, Optimist and various business groups. His speaking audiences include The Texas Attorney General's Office-Child Support Division, the Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum, American Military Society of Military Comptrollers, Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives, Training the Executive Women in Texas Government. Tweed was recently the keynote speaker for the Texas Silver-Haired Legislature, He has shared the stage with other dynamic speakers including T. Harv Ecker, Deepak Chopra, world renowned author & lecturer and Dr. Joe Vitale featured in the movie, 'The Secret.'

What is his fee for speaking?

You will find that his fees are reasonable and, on occasion, somewhat negotiable. To quote you a fee, he'll want to know more about your event--How many people will be attending, the location, how long you need to him to speak and something about the group or audience he will be speaking to.

How is Tweed to work with?

You will find working with Tweed to be hassle free. You will not have to worry about hiring a speaker with a 'star syndrome' or the 'big head.' He wants to work with you. He'll be on time and prepared. He realizes that as a meeting or event planner, you already have enough headaches. Frankly, Tweed is your 'No Stress

Solution.' Book him and stop worrying. What's more, if Tweed doesn't think he is right for your event, he'll tell you. He can refer you to another speaker who could better fit your event. He wants you have nothing but success.

How far is he willing to travel?

Tweed is based in Houston/Cypress, TX. He will certainly travel anywhere in Texas but is willing to travel anywhere in the United States to deliver his motivation, inspiration and humor. Although he is known primarily as a Texas speaker, his message is applicable anywhere people are open to ideas. The concepts and messages he delivers know no borders. Talk to him and you'll see.

How do I book Tweed for my event?

Contact him by phone at 832-260-6100 or by email, Tweed@TweedScott.com

If you are planning an event, call Tweed now to make sure he is available. He will take a deposit toward his speaking fee to hold an available date. Don't wait long, his scheduled appearances are steadily growing.